Character Conversation Questions

These questions are to be asked of one another in a weekly meeting of accountability (Proverbs 27:17). They are to stimulate conversations of character and confession of sin in a safe environment which values honesty, vulnerability, confidentiality, and grace.

1. I praise God for_____.
2. Did I finish the reading? What did God say to you? (via reading or other ways)? What am I going to do about it?
3. Quote your memory verses.
4. What sins do I need to confess? (sexual exposure/thoughts, undisciplined or addictive behavior, unforgiveness, jealousy/envy, purpose for living(Col. 3:23-24),etc.)
5. Have I damaged another person by my words, either behind their back or face-to-face? (kind, necessary, true)
6. Have I continued to remain angry toward another? Wished for their misfortune?
7. Have I been honoring, understanding, and generous in my important relationships this week?
8. How have I seen God at work this week? Did I join Him? (people, circumstances, etc.)
9. How was my prayer life this week? Did I pray for people on back of card?
10. What did I do to move people closer to becoming a follower of Jesus (words & actions)?Balance with believers & unbelievers?
11. Who do you know that has a need and how can we meet that need?

Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much. James 5:16

Strategic Prayer Focus

Each of you in the group is to identify two or three who you feel led to pray for and invest in for their salvation. List the names of all those identified in the group on each card so that all of you pray for each of the lost souls weekly. We recommend that you keep this card in your Bible as a book mark for your daily reading so that each time you open your Bible you are reminded to pray for these souls. "Brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer for them is for their salvation."

Romans 10:1

1. I ask you to prevent Satan from blinding _____ to the truth.(2Cor. 4:4; 2Tim.2:25-26)
2. Father, please convict by your Spirit _____ of their sin, their need of your righteousness, and of your coming judgment. (John 16: 7-11)

*For the daily BIBLE reading write out answers to these questions in your notebook:

First, pray and ask God to speak to you.

G:What can I learn about God & relating to HIM? (promise, prayer, example, command, sin to avoid)

P:What can I learn about people and relating to them?

A:What can I apply to my life?

Ask God to empower you to obey what He's said.*

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. James 1:22
